BMI Brain Testing Plan

What to try, where to find it, and how to tell us what's wrong - for salespeople, accounts and administrators.

TESTING PERIOD
Tue 27 Oct - Fri 6 Nov 2026

WHERE

Version 1.0, 26 Oct 2026

1 About this plan

BMI Brain brings Act!, the sales order register spreadsheets and the day-to-day admin together in one place. Before it replaces them, we'd like each of you to use it for two weeks on your normal work and tell us what's wrong, missing or confusing.

This plan tells you what to try, where to find it and what should happen. Each test has a box to tick, so you can print your section and work through it.

IN THIS ROUND

Ready to test

Contacts and companies, bookings and confirmations, proposals, renewals, rate cards, the editorial plan, mail merge, invoicing and Xero, commission, the sales overview, the Review Queue and Ask the Brain.

NOT IN THIS ROUND

Coming next

Notes from Zoom calls (waiting on Zoom's approval), the prospect pipeline, chase lists and delivery tracking. You'll see some of these mentioned in the app; there's no need to test them yet.

Keep using Act! and the spreadsheets for now

BMI Brain is running on a copy of your data. Before go-live we load a fresh copy, so anything new you type into BMI Brain during testing may be replaced. Do your real work in Act! as usual, and try the same tasks in BMI Brain alongside it.

2 Who tests what

Who	Main focus	Your section
Salespeople Sue, Craig, Kirsty, Sally, Steven, David, Neil	Finding clients, bookings and confirmations, proposals, renewals, your commission	4 and 5
Accounts Samantha	Checking bookings, invoicing, Xero invoices and matching	4 and 6
Administrators Matt, Clare	Sales figures, commission, client ownership, people and settings	4 and 7
Editorial	The editorial plan for your titles	4 and S12

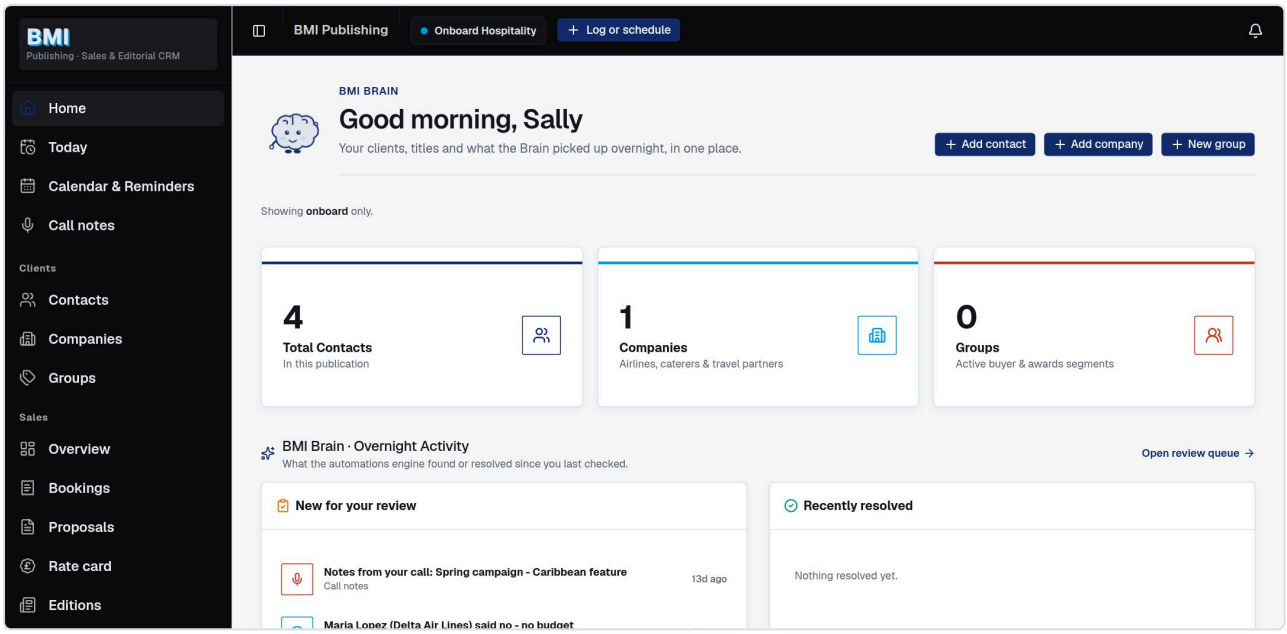

Timetable

When	What
Mon 26 Oct	Demo, sign-ins sent out
Tue 27 Oct - Fri 30 Oct	Week 1: work through your section. Report anything odd as you go.
Mon 2 Nov - Fri 6 Nov	Week 2: give BMI Brain one real daily task you'd normally do in Act! or the spreadsheets, and re-test anything we've fixed.
Every Tue and Thu	15-minute check-in call: what's blocking you, what we've fixed.
Mon 9 Nov	Review the results, sign off and agree the go-live date (section 9).

3 Finding your way around

Everything is in the menu on the left, grouped by what you're doing. You only see the parts that apply to your role.

Menu group	What's there
Home, Today, Calendar & Reminders, Call notes	Your day: what the Brain found overnight, follow-ups due, your calendar and reminders, notes from calls.
Clients	Contacts, Companies and Groups - the same records you have in Act!, with notes, history and bookings on each.
Sales	Overview (figures), Bookings, Proposals, Rate card, Editions, Invoicing, Commissions (or My commission), and under More: All items, Renewals, Weekly summary, Costs & profit.
Editorial	Editorial plan: every issue, its deadlines and features.
Outreach	Mail merge and Email templates.
The Brain	Chat with the Brain, the Review Queue - where the Brain asks before it changes anything - and, for administrators, the Automations it runs.
Bottom of the menu	The Help Centre, Feedback and Settings icons, and Sign out.

Home. The menu on the left, the counts for your titles, and what the Brain picked up overnight.

The Brain suggests - you decide

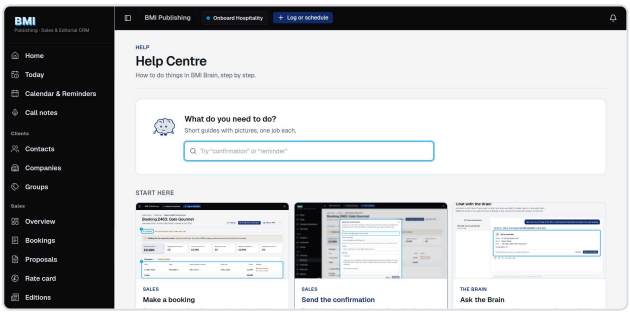

The automations draft emails, spot bounced addresses, find leavers and so on, but nothing goes to a client and no record changes until a person presses the button. Those suggestions wait in the Review Queue.

4 Everyone: getting started

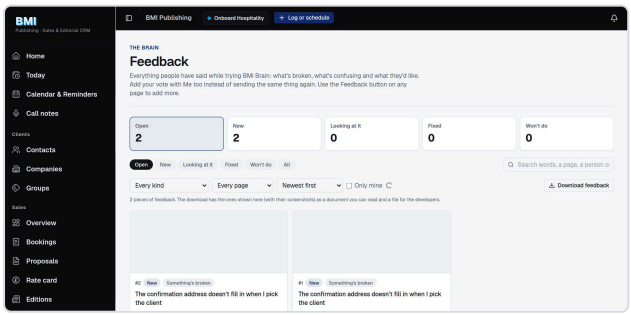

#	What to do	Where	What should happen	Result
E1	Sign in with the email and password we sent you.	bmi.rabtaai.com	You land on Home, with your name at the bottom of the menu.
E2	Connect your Outlook, so emails go from your own mailbox.	Settings › Email Connect Outlook	It says Outlook is connected with your address.
E3	Find three of your clients by part of a name, an email or a phone number.	Clients › Contacts	They come up straight away. Advanced search lets you combine conditions.
E4	Ask the Brain a question, e.g. "When did Gate Gourmet last book?"	Ask the Brain bottom right, or Ctrl+J	A plain answer, with links to the records it used.
E5	Open a guide, e.g. "Make a booking".	Help Centre icon, bottom of the menu	Step-by-step guide with pictures.
E6	Send us one piece of feedback (even "this works well").	Feedback bottom right	It appears on the shared Feedback board.

Contacts: search on any field, then Copy emails, Bulk update, Export or Mail merge the results.

Help Centre: short guides with pictures, one job each.

Feedback board. Ask the Brain and Feedback sit at the bottom right of every page.

5 Salespeople

Your day: start on Home (what's new for you) and Today (follow-ups, renewals and budget windows due). Everything about a client is on their company page.

#	What to do	Where	What should happen	Result
S1	Check Home and Today each morning.	Home Today	Overnight activity and anything due today. Nothing due shows "Nothing due right now".
S2	Open 10 of your companies. Check notes, history, contacts and bookings against Act!.	Clients › Companies	Same people, notes and history as Act!.
S3	On those 10, check Who looks after them is right for each magazine.	Company page	You, or the right colleague. Tell us any that are wrong.
S4	Set a reminder on a contact for next week.	Contact page Remind me	Shows in the amber strip on their page; a notification arrives when due.
S5	Make a booking: pencil one in, then confirm it.	Sales › Bookings New booking	Prices fill in from the rate card; the booking opens with every item in the Schedule.
S6	Send the order confirmation to yourself as the client.	Booking Email the confirmation	Email from your Outlook with the confirmation attached; booking says "Confirmation sent".
S7	Build a proposal for a client and email it to yourself.	Company page Build a proposal	In BMI's template, with issue dates and offers; logged on the client with a follow-up date.
S8	Look at who hasn't rebooked your titles this year.	Sales › More › Renewals	Last year's advertisers, largest spend first, with New booking beside each.
S9	Publishers: check your brand's rate card; press Looks right on items marked "Please check".	Sales › Rate card	Prices match the media pack, before VAT.
S10	Open your commission and check one month against your own figures.	Sales › My commission	Each booking, the rate it earned and why.

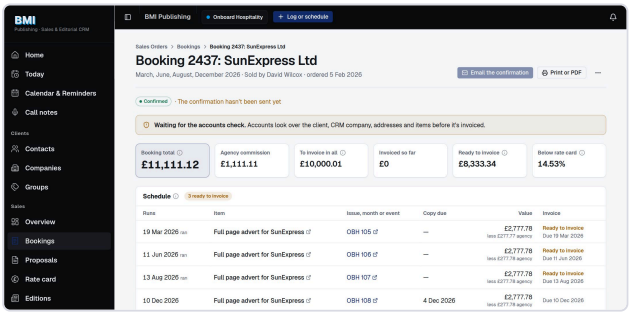

S11	Mail merge a short email to a group, with yourself as one of the people.	Outreach › Mail merge	Each person gets their own email from your Outlook.
S12	Check your titles' issue dates and deadlines.	Editorial › Editorial plan	Dates and features match the real plan.

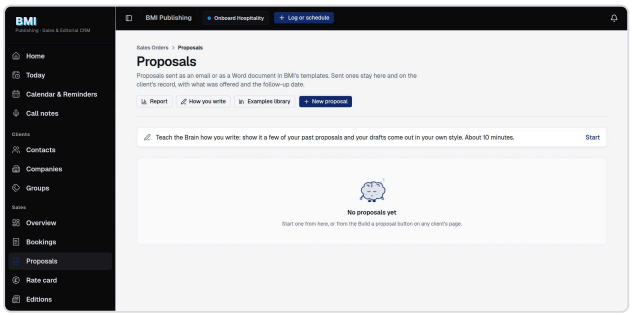

A company page. Remind me, Mail merge, Build a proposal and New booking at the top; who looks after them; contacts, history, notes and bookings below.

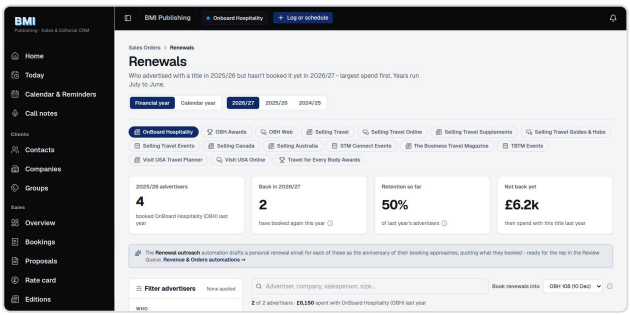

New booking. Choose the client and items; Pencil it in or Confirm the booking.

A booking. Email the confirmation or Print or PDF at the top; every item in the Schedule.

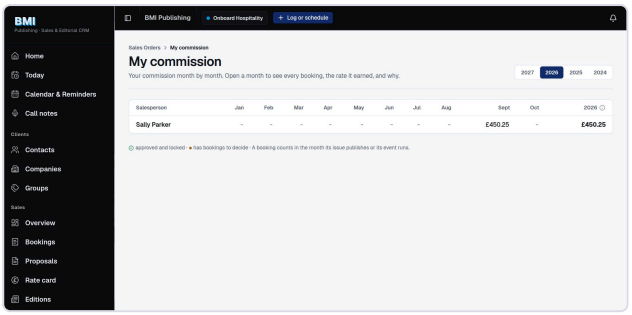

Proposals. How you write teaches the Brain your style from a few past proposals.

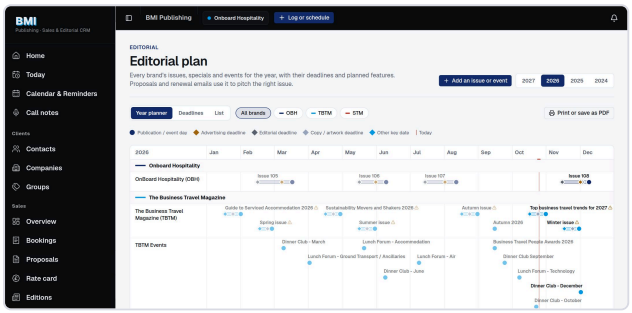

Renewals. Who hasn't booked again yet, and what they spent.

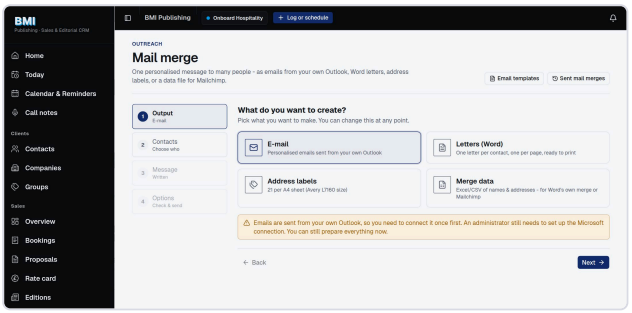

Rate card. One page per brand, laid out like the media pack.

My commission. Month by month; open a month to see every booking.

Editorial plan. Every issue with its deadlines.

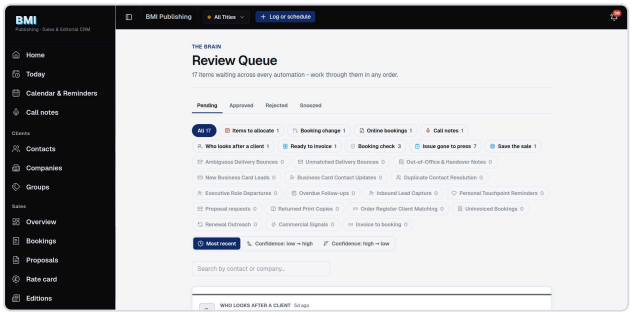

Mail merge. Emails, Word letters, labels or a data file.

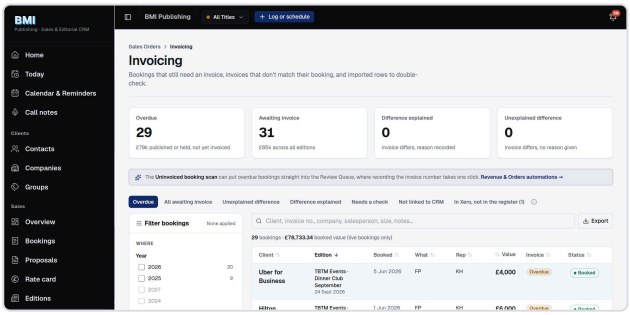

6 Accounts

A salesperson's Confirm signs off the sale. Your check is about invoicing: the client, the CRM company, addresses and items are right before an invoice goes out.

#	What to do	Where	What should happen	Result
A1	Work through the booking checks.	The Brain › Review Queue filter Booking check	Each card links to the booking (opens in a new tab). Looks right or Needs a fix.
A2	Open a booking that hasn't been checked yet.	Sales › Bookings	Amber note: "Waiting for the accounts check".
A3	Look at what's overdue and awaiting an invoice; compare five with Xero.	Sales › Invoicing	The same bookings you'd chase from the spreadsheet.
A4	Create a draft invoice in Xero from a checked booking.	Booking Create the invoice in Xero	A draft appears in Xero with the right contact and codes. Nothing goes to the client.
A5	Check 10 bookings are linked to the right Xero invoice.	Sales › Invoicing and the booking	Invoice number and amount match Xero.
A6	Let a salesperson change an invoiced booking, then lock it again.	Booking Unlock for the salesperson	They can change it; it locks again when they save, or press Lock it again.

Review Queue. Filter by kind (Booking check, Ready to invoice…). Every record on a card opens in a new tab.

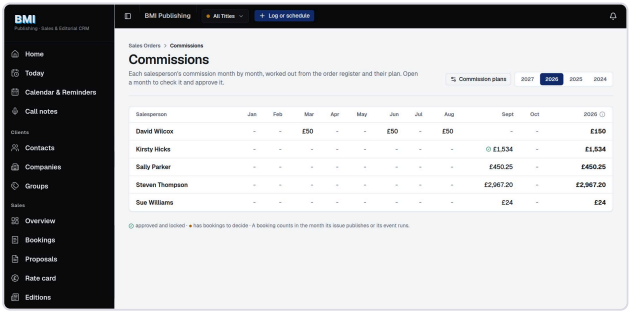

Invoicing. Overdue, awaiting invoice, and invoices that don't match their booking.

#	What to do	Where	What should happen	Result
M1	Compare one month's booked and invoiced figures with your own.	Sales › Overview	Same totals. Switch between financial and calendar year.
M2	Check one month's commission for every salesperson; open one and press Approve this month.	Sales › Commissions	Matches your statement. Plans are under Commission plans.
M3	Read the weekly summary.	Sales › More › Weekly summary	Figures match the Overview; alerts for editions selling behind last year.
M4	Answer the "Who looks after a client" questions.	The Brain › Review Queue	Use the suggestion, Someone else or Not now; your answer is kept for good.
M5	Check costs and profit for one event or issue.	Sales › More › Costs & profit	Sold, costs and profit match your own sums.
M6	Add a person, set their role and which titles they see; hide a section for a role.	Settings › Team & access and Sections people see	They can sign in and see only what you allowed.
M7	See which automations are on and what they've done this week.	The Brain › Automations	Each workstream with what's waiting and resolved.

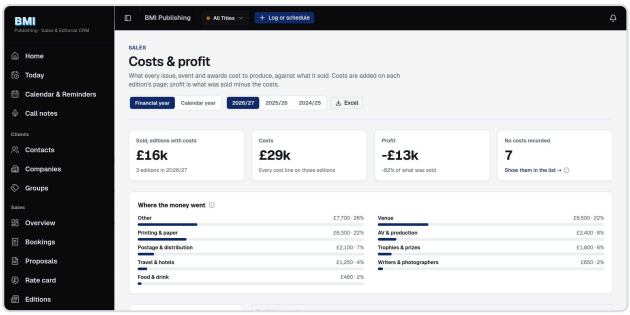

Sales overview. Booked and invoiced, with pace against last year.

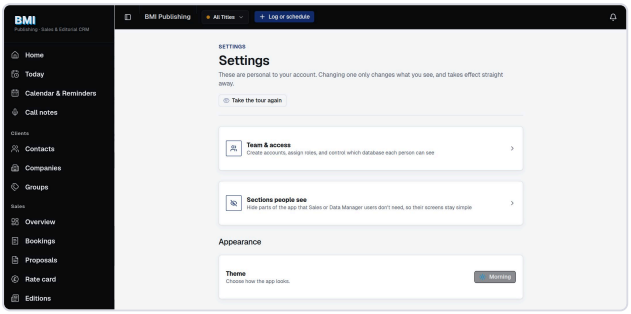

Commissions. Every salesperson by month.

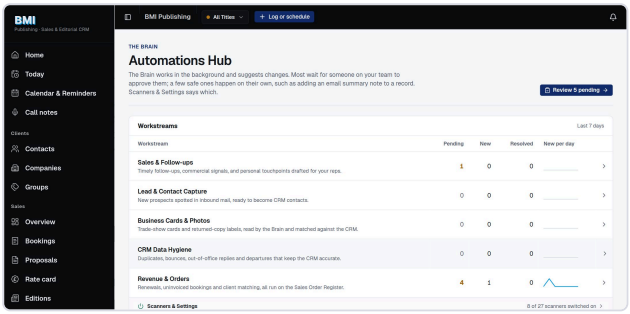

Weekly summary & alerts.

Costs & profit. Per edition and event.

Settings. Team & access and Sections people see.

Automations. What the Brain runs, and what's waiting for review.

8 Reporting a problem

Use the Feedback button at the bottom right of the page where the problem is. It picks up the page you're on and can take a screenshot, which you can draw on. Please say:

1. What you did (e.g. "pressed Confirm the booking for Visit Malta").
2. What you expected, and what happened instead.
3. The test number from this plan, if there is one (e.g. S5).

Before sending, check the Feedback board: if someone has already reported it, press Me too instead.

How serious is it?

Level	Meaning	We aim to
Blocker	You can't do the task at all, or money figures are wrong (bookings, invoices, commission).	Fix within 1 working day
Major	Wrong or awkward, but there's a way round it.	Fix within the week
Minor	Wording, layout or something that looks odd.	Fix before go-live
Idea	Works, but could be better, or something new you'd like.	Discuss at a check-in

> Questions during testing
>
> Ask the Brain first - it knows the app. Otherwise email ahmed@cybix.ai or raise it at the Tuesday or Thursday check-in.

9 When testing is finished

We'll agree BMI Brain is ready to go live when:

- Every test in sections 4 to 7 has been tried by at least one person.
- There are no open Blockers or Majors.
- For one month, the Overview, Commissions and Invoicing figures match BMI's own figures.
- Each team is happy to stop using Act! and the spreadsheets for their part.

Then we load a fresh copy of the Act! data and the order register, check the totals once more, and switch over.

Still needed from BMI

- Delivery stages, how long each takes and who owns it (for delivery tracking).
- Sally's pipeline spreadsheet (for the prospect pipeline).

- 3 to 5 proposals you've sent (so proposals sound like BMI).
- Selling Travel's issue dates and features.
- Digital edition links: one issue link and one page link.
- Matt: how recent a salesperson's last Act! note must be for a client to be theirs (2 years for now).
